

THE COMPLETE CABARET WORKSHOP

Everything you need to know to put your own cabaret show together, including finding and arranging your songs, musical styles, how to write your own patter, show order, performance technique, sound, lighting, and the business of cabaret.

Live video taped performance at The Gardenia on the final night.

This workshop will educate, enlighten and entertain.

Special guests speakers including Les Traub, president of Cabaret West and Cabaret Scenes reviewer and Tom Rolla, owner of the Gardenia.

Segment on recording your demo or CD.

Keri Kelsey and Todd Schroeder present this four part workshop at Tom Rolla's Gardenia, the premier cabaret room in Los Angeles.

Limited space available. Don't miss this opportunity.

Keri Kelsey is a former literary agent, and a theatre arts major. She traveled the country with the Big Apple Circus. Currently she is the host of the Gardenia Open Mic on Tuesdays and is an approved on air vendor representative for QVC. Keri has performed her Cabaret Show in Los Angeles, New York and various other cities across the country.

Todd Schroeder co-created Schroeder's Club and Cabaret in San Diego. He has performed in almost every cabaret venue since 1990. He has worked with Angela Lansbury, Sam Harris, Jason Alexander and Liza Minnelli among others. Todd is a musical consultant for Universal Studios and The Walt Disney Corporation.

Mondays 7:00PM to 11:00 PM

April 4
April 11
April 18
April 25

Final Performance Date To Be Determined

Cost:
$225.00 for Cabaret West members
$250.00 for non Cabaret West members.
We will donate $25.00 from the cost of the Workshop for your Cabaret West membership.

(818)-788-4993
www.kerikelsey.com
Dizzytalk@aol.com